An aerial photograph of Seaside Union High School in Seaside, Oregon. The school is a large, modern building with a complex, interconnected design featuring multiple wings and a central courtyard. It is situated on a sandy area near a beach, with several tall, slender trees in the foreground. In the background, a river or estuary flows through a residential and wooded area, with hills visible in the distance.

Foreword:

*The thread of high school life is sewn with care and understanding;
altering and shaping our lives into a richer, more meaningful pattern;
augmenting and strengthening the fabric of our existence with broader outlooks, deeper thoughts, higher ideals, and greater responsibilities.
It is with pride that we the staff of the 1963 Seabreeze present to you,
the students of Seaside Union High School,
this yearbook: your creation and your design.*

The unique two party political system at Seaside Union High School provides the students with a practical knowledge of the operation and procedure of American politics. It provides a forum for student opinion and a training ground that will enable students to take their place as useful citizens in a modern democratic society.

Closely paralleling the procedure of the major national parties, the divided groups at SUHS hold a separate convention each Spring to select their candidates for the student body offices, who are then elected by the student body from a secret ballot.

HEAD COACH
CHET BOWSER

The 1962 version Seagull Football team equalled the successes of previous years, rolling to its seventh COWAPA League Championship in as many years. A very effective offense coupled with a defense to match paved the way to a perfect 9-0 League record, stretching a consecutive league win skein to 39 in a row.

The high flying Gulls, ranked number one in the state all through the season then proceeded to trounce Yamhill-Carlton 28-0 and Toledo 27-6 in quarter and semi-final action, before bowing to Central of Monmouth-Independence 14-0 in the finals.

Seaside can thank their three fine coaches for the recent successes of the Gulls in the foot-ball wars. Although Neal Maine was added only last season, head coach Chet Bowser and Defensive specialist Steve Johnson have compiled an overall record of 31-3 for their 3 seasons here.

Congratulations on a fine season, Gulls.

Gull team spirit was high all year, as is shown in this candid shot

Football Season

Typical offensive rush, as the Seaside line leads the way for a good gain.

Senior HB George Nelson (No. 21) eludes tacklers for good gain, set up by (No. 71) Bob Hakanson's block downfield.

Senior QB, Ron Steel, leads the Gulls onto the field at the beginning of the second half of the Vernonia game.

Gulls Capture Second Spot at State

Shown here receiving the A-2 State Championship runner-up trophy, are Karl Marlantes, Jay Bandonis (kneeling), and Bob Hakanson.

Awards and Honors Given at Football Banquet

Honored at the annual football banquet, sponsored by Seaside Kids Inc., were these three seniors: Jerry Alto, Most Inspirational Player, Ron Steel, Honorary Captain, and Karl Marlantes, who was co-holder of both awards. These boys were selected by a secret ballot held among the varsity team.

JV and Frosh Show Promise

From left to right, Row 1: Coach Tom House, Manager George Bechtold, Don Bowser, Ross Bailey, Ken Treharne, Doug Smith, Dwayne McQuilliams, Kent Strong. Row 2: Jerome Schinderle, Bob Nimmo, John Wright, Terry Grant, Jack Kerwin, Marcus Wright, Terry Hartill. Row 3: Don Bradley, Tim Lindsey, Steve Earl, Ricky Trucke, Bruce Combs, Joe Meyer. Row 4: Joe Parker, Doug Strong, John Moran, Robert Lee, Norm McLaren, Marvin Crist.

The SUHS coaching staff was very pleased with the performance of the 1962 frosh and JV squads. The Baby Gulls concluded their season with a 3-2-1 record, beating the Neahkahnie JVs and Astoria frosh, tying Star of the Sea and Warrenton varsity, and losing to the Knappa varsity.

The frosh turnout was especially impressive. Numbering close to 45 for one of the largest A-2 frosh teams in the state, the infant Gulls compiled a 3 win, 1 tie record.

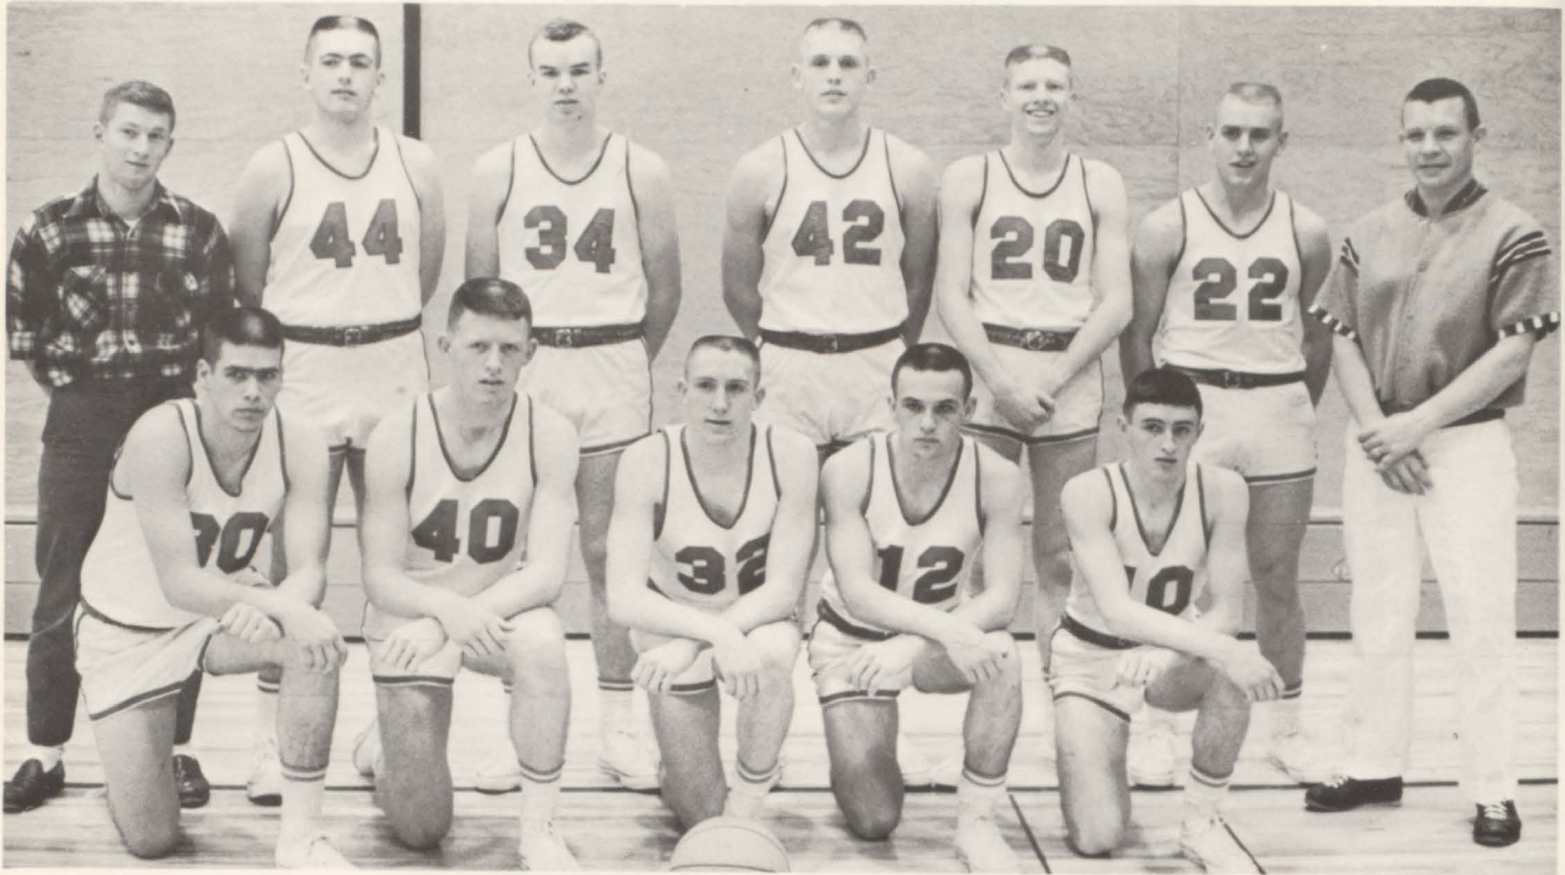

Congratulations on a successful season, JVs and frosh, for you are the varsity stars of tomorrow.

The 1962-63 Seagull hoopsters posted an 18 win, 4 loss record for the season, while winning the Western half of the COWAPA League for the third straight year.

At the district tourney, though, the Seaside quint had to settle for second place, as they bowed to the North Catholic Royals 46—38.

The Gulls again were under the direction of hoop mentor Tom House, who has to his credit a 57—17 record for his three years at Seaside.

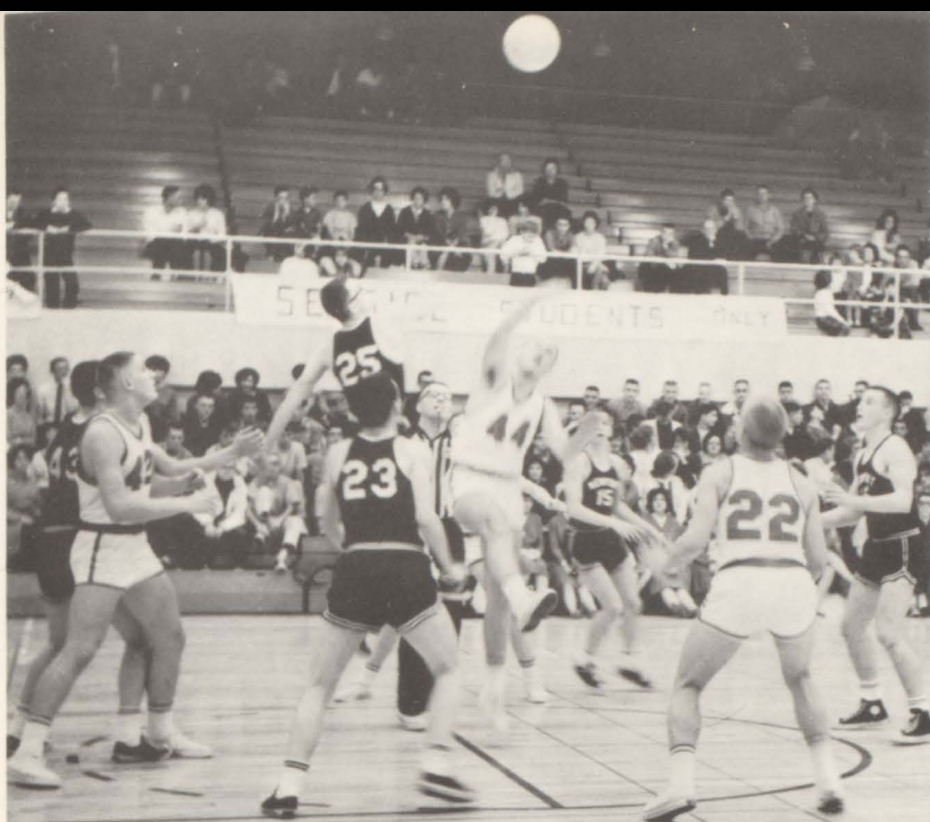

At the annual Basketball awards banquet, Coach Tom House is seen congratulating Allen Reinikka, Honorary Captain, and John Bracher, Most Inspirational Player.

Senior Standouts

Gull Chuck Niemi (No. 44) controls the tip against an unidentified player in the Seaside—Newport game, as other Seasiders, Jerry Alto (No. 22) and Rance Sopko (No. 43) look on.

Jerry Alto, starting guard for the Seagulls, goes up for an easy lay-in.

Center Rance Sopko gets the jump on his man in the Vernonia game.

Chuck Niemi, starting forward for the Gulls, prepares to grab an all important rebound in the Astoria game.

Allen Reinikka posed a threat to enemy defenses all year with shots such as this fade-away jumper.

John Bracher, Gull guard seen bringing the ball down court in this picture, was top playmaker and defensive specialist for the Gulls in the '62-'63 hoop campaign.

JV and Frosh Develop Skills

Sitting: Jerry Olson, Terry Grant, LeRoy Smith, Brian Hendrickson. Kneeling, Jack Kerwin, Needham Ward, Ed Rippet, Bob Nimmo, Jerome Schinderle. Standing: Coach Steve Johnson, Marcus Wright, Dave Buerk, Ed Hendrickson, Cleve Benson, and Terry Hartill.

The Seaside JayVees, again with Coach Steve Johnson at the helm, compiled a successful 13-4 record for the 1962-63 season. Dave Buerk, leading scorer with a 10.7 point game average, and defensive specialist Ed Rippet sparked the Gull juniors to an offensive average of 42 points a game, while limiting their opponents to a meager 31.3 average.

Kneeling: Jim Cole, Jon Kemhus, Rick Lucas, Gary Hansen, Rick Cavanaugh, Brand Dichter, and Jim Faust. Standing: Coach Larry Haller, Ron Sopko, Steve Phillips, Ken Owen, Bob Smits, Jan Herron, and John Comstock.

The Frosh team posted a 5-8 record for the season, but six of the losses came at the hands of A-1 schools.

Baby Gull Coach Larry Haller stated at the end of the season, "This squad has shown more potential than any other I've seen in my coaching years at Seaside, and I feel that the JVs and Varsity can expect great things of them in the future."

The 1963 Gull baseball team furthered this year's enviable sports record by not only winning the western half of the COWAPA League but the league as well, as they defeated the North Cathiloc Royals in a best of three series.

The SUHS nine earned the the right to face the Royals as they swept through western division play undefeated, and, somewhat miraculously, unscored upon. Sporting a season's record of 11-3, the Seagulls faced Yamhill-Carlton on their first step toward the state baseball finals, but were defeated by a score of 3-2.

Senior Chuck Niemi displays the hitting form that gained him a .447 batting average and the top position in the RBI column.

Roy Sigurdson scores again on one of the Gulls best offensive weapons, a well-worked squeeze play.

SUHS Track Team Has Successful Season

Row 1: Steve Crichton, Ken Owen, Bob Smits, John Comstock, Jim Hoffman, Alan Phelan, Jack Kerwin. Row 2: Terry Hartill, Leroy Huckleberry, Marcus Wright, Norman McLaren, Doug Smith, Greg Pollock, Jan Herron. Row 3: Coach Colbert Pepper, Manager John Wright, Robert Chisholm, Earl Reynolds, Rick Trucke, Karl Marlantes, Richard Chisholm, George Nelson, Need Ward, Tib Utter, Dallas Cook, Jerry Alto, Dennis Long, Ron Steel, Doug Bundy, and Assistant Coach Edgar Lehr.

SUHS Track squad saw all but one school record remain intact throughout the year but still performed admirably as they moved to a convincing triumph in the sub-district track meet. After compiling numerous dual victories and sub-district honors, the Gulls came in second in the district track meet held on the University of Portland oval. Only four Gulls went to the state track meet, which saw George Nelson lower his own low hurdles standard to 20.6 seconds.

Dick Fague sprints for position at the start of the half mile.

Seagull distance men take lead in an early season meet held at Clatskanie. Seaside runners from left are Need Ward, Dick Fague, and Dennis Long.

Tib Utter stretches for an extra inch as he releases the shot.

Ron Steel hands off to anchorman George Nelson in the 880 relay.

Track Actions

Gull sprinter, Ron Steel, who tied the school record in the 440 at the state meet, strains for the tape.

Brent Painter drives for a first in the Sub-District high hurdles.

High hurdler, Karl Marlantes, is shown on his way toward qualifying for the district meet held at the University of Portland.

Golf

All State golfer, Rich Schroeder, was the only player representing an A-2 high school to attain that honor.

One of the highlights of the Spring assuredly is the fine record of the 1963 SUHS golf team. Competing against ten schools from the A-1 Metro League as well as Warrenton, the Gull golfers finished second in the District Golf Meet to insure a trip to the 16-team State Golf Championships in Portland. The Gulls were the only A-2 squad in the State Golf Meet and after placing second in the first day's totals finished the meet in fourth place.

This is undoubtedly the finest showing of any SUHS golf team to date. Placing fourth to champion South Eugene, the Gulls were led by All-State selection Rich Schroeder and junior Mike Graham. Reid Larson and Al Reinikka made up the rest of the State A-2 Championship contingent.

The World of Drama

"What happened on the night of January 16?" This is the question that criminal lawyer, Gail Benson is trying to solve as she cross examines a witness, Bruce Combs, while Judge Paul Deuber listens carefully to the testimony.

"Oh, Rodney, what beautiful eyes you have!" exclaims Sandra Holt in the drama class production of IF GIRLS ASKED BOYS FOR DATES.

The drama class, under the direction of Mr. James Fairchild, who has just completed his first year at SUHS, has had a very successful year. They presented four plays: MOLLY MORGAN, THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF DRAMA, which consisted of four one-act plays representing fantasy, mystery, comedy, and life, THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th, and THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER. The class also attended a one-act play contest at Pacific University where two of the students, Shirley McKnight and Cathie Lively, received certificates of merit for their acting.

An angry Jane Perrigo confronts her social climbing mother and friend with an ultimatum in the drama class presentation of John Steinbeck's MOLLY MORGAN.

Gary Harding sasses back young teacher, Molly Morgan, played by Cathie Lively, during one of the many rehearsals for the play.

Chorus Receives Excellent Rating at Contest

Chorus instructor, Mr. James Farmer, leads members. From left to right are: Row one: Linda Poole, Karen Miles, Peggy Mannila, Teresa Kindel, Charlotte Weaver, Donna Beaver, Sandra Culbertson, Irene Hanthorn, Ellen Johnson, Janey White, Sharon Smith. Row two: Elaine Klebe, Barbara Watkins, Beth Dueber, Cheryl Martz, Sandi Evans, Kathy Brooks, Nan Makinster, Carol Barker, Margaret Davis, Suzanne Redkey, Janice Brown, Judy Peterson, Mary Schade, Eileen Person, Shirley Semmen. Row three: Larry Harding, Mike Uzelac, Dan Cota, Larry Sage, Gary Trucke, Mark Collins, Fred Cook, Gary Harding, John Smith, Carol Wilson, Sharon McVey. Row four: Ken Olson, Dave Smith, Dave Hansen, Larry Schulze, Paul Dueber, Gary Martz, Grant Seal, Leslie Philbrook, Jerry Comstock.

Mr. James Farmer's first year of directing the SUHS chorus proved to be a very rewarding one in that his choir received an excellent rating in its contest work. Their selections included several religious numbers.

Standing: Karen Miles, Peggy Mannila, Mary Schade, Sandi Evans, Sharon McVey, Janey White, and Sharon Smith. Seated at piano is Elaine Klebe, accompanist.

"Service With a Smile"

The Whitecaps have fulfilled their obligations as a service club so well that Whitecaps and service have become nearly synonymous words at Seaside High School. At almost any school function these girls work quietly and efficiently; preparing, cleaning, doing, serving.

President

Lola Knutson

One of the many services performed by the Whitecaps was the operation of the student concession stand. Here, several senior boys are loading up on "Geedunks", a well known dietary supplement.

Dux Hi-Y Perform Duties

The purpose of the Hi-Y member is to create and maintain, throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character, to serve his school and community in many different and various ways, and to employ sound practices of good citizenship and fellowship. The club elects its own members from outstanding boys in the student body and performs various services for the school.

One major service performed by the Hi-Y is the preparation of the cafetorium for student body assemblies.

Ron Steel

Girls League Association

Pictured above are GLA officers. Seated from left: Ky Weed, senior representative; Julie Beebe, junior representative; Cheryl Burstow, sgt.-at-arms; Shirleen Cole, vice-president; Jane Jefferis, president; Carol Wood, secretary; Holly Bracher, treasurer; Toni Skipper, freshman representative; and Janis Anderson, sophomore representative. Standing: Jane Perrigo, co-historian; Marsha Hoffman, Girl of the Month Chairman; Margaret Davis, standard bearer; and Robin Hill, co-historian.

A girl automatically becomes a member of the Girls' League Association upon registration at Seaside High. At the beginning of the year the GLA sponsored a "pow-wow mixer" which was held in the cafetorium for all freshmen and upper-classmen. A style show was part of the program and was held with the intention of showing the freshmen what to wear—when.

The group sponsors several interesting projects throughout the year so that they may present a scholarship to a senior girl who plans to attend a trade school after graduation. The association was advised by Miss Nora Williams.

President
Jane Jefferis

Kathi Kerwin, Jane Jefferis, and Robin Hill were chosen as 1962 delegates to Girls' State. The trio attended the annual session held in Salem and then reported their memorable experiences at one of the GLA dinner meetings.

Lettermen Lead the Way

Jerry Alto
President

To be a member of the Lettermen's Club, a boy must earn a varsity letter in a sport at SUHS. Each year the Lettermen sponsor a Sports Open House to raise money for the athletic department. They also assist at various sports functions.

The fifth period P. E. classes square dance at Sports Open House.

Girls' Athletic Association Active

The Girls' Athletic Association has promoted the ideas of health, sportsmanship, physical efficiency, and love of the out-of-doors among the girls of Seaside High School. Because of the increased gym and locker-room facilities, the G. A. A. has been more active this year than in any previous year of their existence as a club. Their many activities in the field of sports were augmented with games of volleyball, basketball, baseball, and also "play days" with other schools in the area.

The lineup! These five freshmen girls from Gearhart were suspects of the G. A. A. riots held after school in the gym.

Allen Reinikka
President

Roy Sigurdson lights the final candle in the tapping ceremony of new Honor Society members.

Membership into the National Honor Society is based upon scholarship, service, leadership, and character. The society promotes enthusiasm for scholarship, not as a means toward achieving high grades, but as a search for truth.

Rally Squad Strikes that Spark of School Spirit

Reduced from twelve to seven members, the 1962-63 rally proved to be a more efficient squad as they performed dance routines and led yells at all athletic events. This year's rally is to be congratulated on the fine job they did as a group, and thanked for adding so much spirit and spice to every game and pep assembly.

SUHS Welcomes Frosh

King Jan Herron

Queen Cathy Berg

"Stranger on the Shore" was the fitting theme of the Welcome Freshman Dance. Jan Herron and Cathie Berg were elected to reign over the Class of '66 in the traditional penny ballot held by the student body at the beginning of each year. The dance, given by the sophomore class, was the first of the year.

Seagull's Homecoming Celebrated

George Nelson was crowned "King Football" at the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Honor Society. The theme of this year's dance was Moon River. George was announced the winner of the ballot held by the student body by head football coach, Chet Bowser, and was crowned midway through the dance by last year's king, Tim Emmons.

The annual Homecoming serpentine, starting on Broadway and winding its way through the streets of Seaside, ended at the huge bonfire on the beach off Twelfth Avenue.

King George I led a conquering army through the 1963 football season, piling up points and attaining all state honors.

Sadie Hawkins Dance Climaxes Twirp Week

Lynda Smith

Mark Hansen

The supreme highlight of the SUHS social season is the crowning glory of the Twirp season, the Sadie Hawkins Dance. This dance is sponsored by the Dux Hi-Y Club each year in an attempt to raise enough money to pay for the previous year's dance. Jugs of cider, doughnuts, and unbelievable color combinations formed by crepe paper and balloons supply the unfortunates who are asked to the dance with a pseudo-happy atmosphere. As the boys wait nervously for the sound of a gun shot that denotes open season on husbands, the girls greedily eye their prey. The race begins, the lights go out, and when it's all over the fastest running girl nabs herself a mate.

Seniors' Princess Chosen Sno-Ball Queen

Queen Jan Ordway

"Date With an Angel" was the theme of the Snoball Dance held December 8. The interior of the cafetorium was transformed into a heaven on earth through the use of angel hair cloud drifts and golden harps. The "Big Book" with the attending couples' names written in gold, stood in the center of the mist wreathed dance floor. The princesses for the dance, which is an annual affair sponsored by the Whitecaps, are elected by their classes.

Seniors Create "Never Never Land"

Princess Marcia Jones

Queen Shirleen Cole

In a "Peter Pan" atmosphere, junior Shirleen Cole was crowned to reign over the 1963 Senior Ball, held February 23 in the SUHS cafetorium.

The theme of "Never-Never Land" was portrayed by a nursery setting on the stage, and around the room could be found a quaint Indian village, a lagoon with Captain Hook's pirate ship and an imaginary city of London.

Princess Gayna Jones

Princess Kathie O'Dell

The much harassed victims of Henry's pranks demand action from an even more harassed Mr. Peck.

The comedy was put on as a money-raising project and was one of the most successful of all Junior Class plays. It was directed by Mr. James Fairchild of the drama department.

Chuckling with nearly sadistic delight, Henry and his impish pal, Jimmy, place an old wedge of limburger cheese in Mrs. Peck's handbag.

An angry Mrs. Peck fumes at her daughter, Luella, for meeting her boy friend, Clifford, against her orders. Mr. Peck looks on meekly.

“Mardi Gras” Theme of Junior Prom

Princess Cathie Lively

Queen Ky Weed

Princess Terri Benson

Princess Sally Reed

Princess Shirleen Cole

Princess Betty Turnow

Mardi Gras came to Seaside with all the glitter and pomp of the New Orleans festival. The Junior Class converted the SUHS cafetorium into a gay street scene with confetti, hundreds of balloons, masks, blossoming fruit trees, and a carnival atmosphere. The center of attraction was a huge red velvet throne, modeled after a royal crown.

Princess Carol Wood

10 Finalists for Miss Seaside

The above picture of the ten finalists for Miss Seaside was taken at a combination tea and style show held at the Calvary Episcopal Church. The girls are: Jan Ordway, Maralynn Mellinger, Cheryl Hart, Shirley McKnight, Cheri Smith, Gayna Jones, Barbara Darling, Kathi Kerwin, Marcia Jones, and Lola Knutson.

These girls were chosen from a group of fifteen senior girls who tried out for Miss Seaside. Each year, in connection with the Miss Seaside Pageant, the Junior Women's Club sponsors a free charm course open to any interested senior girl. The pageant, held May 4 at the Central School Auditorium climaxed several weeks of preparation and competition. From among the finalists, Kathi Kerwin was chosen as first runner-up and Miss Congeniality. Shirley McKnight was chosen as second runner-up.

1963 Miss Seaside

Jan Ordway

Selected as the official hostess for the Miss Oregon Pageant was Jan Ordway, Miss Seaside of 1963. Jan was chosen as winner of the title from among ten other SUHS senior girls. As Miss Seaside, it will be her duty and privilege to welcome the participants in the Miss Oregon Pageant to Seaside, and assure them of a memorable stay in our city.

1963 Regatta Princess

Shirley McKnight

Shirley McKnight was chosen to represent Seaside at the Astoria Regatta Festival by a secret ballot held by the entire student body at SUHS. Princess Shirley was announced as candidate for Queen of the 1963 Regatta at a dance held May 18 at the Astoria Armory. As her name was announced she was escorted along with six other princesses representing their individual schools, to a place of honor on stage.

Seaside students show an active interest in civic affairs; typical of this interest is that shown by the Chairman of the Riot Committee, Bob Hakanson.

My first year at Seaside High has been most rewarding and challenging. I have gradually become acquainted with students, traditions, and some of your problems in the past few months, and sincerely hope we can carry on the fine reputation of Seaside High in all respects in the future.

Many of the obstacles and problems of the opening of school have been surmounted through the students' cooperation, for which I wish to thank each of you.

With the new building, better facilities, and additional faculty, I look forward to next year with a great deal of pleasure and sincerely hope we all can make the school achieve the high standing it so deserves.

The ability to communicate effectively and efficiently with each other is a necessity, the accomplishment of which will further the course of human relations toward the goal of harmony of fear and misunderstanding. Because of the increasing awareness of the vital importance of the study of languages, many new learning devices and language aids have come into use.
